

AFFIDAVIT OF COLLEEN M. CARR

I, Colleen M. Carr, declare the the following statements are true and correct, based on my personal observation, knowledge and interactions with P.F. Lazor:

1. In 1977, when Mr. Lazor was a student at Ohlone College, I was his major advisor and was the Division Chairperson of the Fashion Merchandising and Consumer Sciences Departments. I have worked at Ohlone since 1973 and therefore have observed many students in my classes. My current address is: Colleen M. Carr, Professor, Ohlone College, P.O.Box 3909, Fremont, California, 94539-0390.

2. In this position, I had many opportunities to observe Mr. Lazor in a variety of situations both as a classroom student and as he worked directly with me on a special merchandising project.

3. The outstanding character traits that I witnessed were a softspoken nature, pleasant attitude with all other students, a very gentle and sensitive manner in dealing with all associates in this setting. He never displayed any anger or violent tendencies during our association. He was a creative and gentle person.

4. When projects did not develop as he had hoped, he was good natured about such disappointments and went about continuing to work on new approaches and would demonstrate great patience with his creative endeavors.

5. I awaited a summons to serve as a character witness for him during that trial. Had I been called, I would have gladly offered these comments in person. If I can be of further assistance now, I am most willing to do so.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
