I am writing this letter in behalf of my friend,
 PF Lazor.

PF and I have known each other for over 1½ years. I have found him to be not only a very loving and caring person but also a trusting friend. I admire his patience and listening abilities. He is very bright, articulate and extremely creative.

You need only to listen to the music he has written, to his views regarding his fellow man and to the way he talks to and treats others to know that he couldn't possibly kill someone unless in self defense.

As my children would say "No way - not PF - he's too gentle; he has too much respect for life."

With my love and support,

 Pam Robinson

I do solemnly declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
