

ABOUT LAZOR'S SONGS

AND PERFORMING TALENTS

"There is no comparison to PF Lazor. This show...creates an energy in the audience that's just not to be believed. It's the best there is."

*Sylvia Dixon, owner Rendezvous Nightclub
Fremont, California 1979*

"Lazor's songwriting is the best I've ever heard ...equal to anything Lennon & McCartney or the Eagles have ever done at their peak ...akin to the very best that Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young ever did in their greatest era, as good if not better than a lot of Bruce Springsteen's material. This guy's good - the best."

Marvin Edward Smith, Songwriter - opened for Grammy winner, Joe Turner at North Carolina's Jazzerama

"PF Lazor...is one of the finest pieces of entertainment that I have witnessed in a quarter of a century of rock & roll music. He had the audience on their feet roaring for more. In concert Lazor is highly professional...uses original material...has a great future as a single artist."

*Howard A. DeWitt, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Music History
Fremont, California 1979*

"Every Song I Sing has been awarded first place in the Song Lyrics Category of this year's Prison Arts Competition. There were over 500 entries this year, so it is a solid accomplishment."

*Laurie Brooks, Project Coordinator - William James Association
Santa Cruz, California 1991*

"I'm astonished. Lazor writes...#1 hit song material. I've never heard a songwriter-singer, even the most famous, so versatile and so consistent in their talent of writing quality hits. People can relate to Lazor's songs. The unique style and feeling is all Lazor's own...in great songs like Hero All Alone, Married to the Music, A Gift to You, Nothin' Else Will Do, So Pathetic-Copacetic Blues and many others."

*Russel Ray McDonald, layman music consumer
Long Beach, California 1992*

"I noticed his audience...transfixed as he sang. Lazor's songs are definitely top-10 hits. I know the public would jump at the chance to buy the songs. I would rate [Lazor's] selections [with] the best of songwriters and performer-stylists in the business such as Mick Fleetwood, Neil Diamond, Barbra Streisand, Barry Manilow, Willie Nelson [and] the immortal styles of Bruce Springsteen and Paul Simon. ...philosophically enlightening."

*Steven J. Kelly, Songwriter
Los Angeles, California 1993*

"All I can say is 'what a show' ...seldom can I remember getting an emotional high like I did from ...this fine group. They bring a new dimension to the style of old rock and roll."

*Jerry Gordon, Veteran radio D.J. and concert emcee
KSFO-FM Radio, San Francisco, California*

"Brother, the Lord has truly given you a gift. We pray that you will continue to use that gift for the glory of God through the songs you write."

*Jim Roberts, President, Convicts for Christ, Inc.
Chino, California May 1993*
