

ALL ABOUT YOU

4-20-15
(#34)

1. Should the twilight come when I'm gone
when you're not feeling too strong,
and you're questioning my motives
not sure why I do what I do.
Should our weather turn capricious
and you're feeling bare and speechless,
as if the warmth of love failed to reach us
— seeking a clue.

REFRAIN: If you should ever question
if my love was really true
Be assured — know in your heart
it was all about you.

If you're ever contemplating
if some day our love may be through —
No, no ! don't you know
my whole life and love's been for you.

And should you ever wonder if I'd even sacrifice my life too . . .
Without a second thought
I'd give it up for you.

2. When I'm gone too long from home and you're feeling stark alone
even questioning most everything that we had solemnly promised.
Yield like a young tree in a blustery storm
Pull out a memory to keep your heart warm,
be assured everything you've heard
in my word is honest.

[REPEAT TRIPLE REFRAIN]

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[REPEAT REFRAIN, AND ADD TAG]

. . . And I wouldn't have it any other way
. . . All about you.

[END]

Written: April 20, 2015