

1. Almighty Father YHWH,
We praise you by name.
Yesterday, tomorrow and today you and your law remain the same.
With fruit of our lips we give you praise,
from the spirit within us you restore,
in thankfulness for redeeming us
by the blood of your Son, our Living Savior.

2. Almighty Father Yahweh,
We come humbled in praise.
We recognize our need for you especially in these trying days.
With our heads bowed low & our hearts raised high,
in the hope of your kingdom to come With a promise of where we're going and the knowledge of where we came from.

3. Almighty YHWH, Father,
We approach you in prayer.
You know the deepest thoughts of each heart
of your servants everywhere.
As we approach your throne overflowing with reverence and awe at your gentle mercy,
for the crown of your creation:
mankind you designed to live peaceful and free.

4. Almighty Father Yahweh,
Who brought all things to be.
Master artist of all creation, authored perfectly.
With a duty to faithfully serve the Word who in turn helps us to endure
the temptations of our adversary and the ways of the world's allure.

5. Almighty YHWH, Father
We praise you by name.
Yesterday, tomorrow, and today you remain the same.
With fruit of our lips we give you praise,
for the spirit in us you restore,
in thankfulness for ransoming us
by the blood of your Son, our Living Savior.

Almighty Yahweh, Father . . . we praise you by name . . .

[REPEAT TO FADEOUT]

[END]

Written: November 12-13, 1995.