

AND I LOVE HER

6-4-16 (1)
(#51)

1. Wind or rain or shine, 'long as I know that she's mine.
doesn't matter where I dine, it's about the bottom line,
that I love her. Yes, I love her.
Take me for a ride, anywhere I'll go in stride
with a healthy dose of pride, I'll be more than satisfied,
as I love her. 'Cause I love her.
2. Put me on a jet, without a safety net,
and the one thing you can bet, is I'll never have regret,
for how I love her. How I love her.

BRIDGE: Love her morning kiss as the rising sun awakens her;
I keep it through the day till I can be with her again.

3. She's never let me down; she doesn't run around,
she rights my world when upside-down, she's the best I've ever found,
and I lover her. How I love her.
Love you everyday, a little more in every way,
I like the way you play, more than just a little risqué;
it makes me love her. How I love her.

[INSTRUMENTAL OF VERSE SECTION]

4. Soon will come the spring, flowers everywhere will sing,
renewed life in everything, more love reawakening,
how I love her. And I love her.
Your body's love incense, incomparable experience,
your self-contained magnificence, deliciously intense !
How I love her. Makes me love her . . .
How I want her. Makes me crave her . . . *

* Fading out vocals

† Then all the music notes suddenly collapse as when a building under demolition topples in a pile of rubble – but here it's the sound tumbling down. Then song abruptly ends.
