

1. Wild berries
Farm dairies
Herds pasturing in the fields
-Can almost see the wandering wind and hear the flowers grow.

Slow, ever, oh! so slowly:
Humbled nature almost holy,
Go and come seasons
skipping through time.

2. Sparrows flittering Blossoms littering
Petals falling down the skies
-A vision almost in my mind, but nebulous, like dreaming.

Memories of a horse-drawn carriage, caref'ly crafted springtime marriage, of the melting snow and sprouting blooms.

3. Trickling streams
Of summer dreams
Mist-drizzle dancing on the swirls Sky castles with its mountains building in the ether's wars.

Jagged lightning throws its brightening, striking beauty, hints of frightening
-only those not in love with its awesome power.

4. Dolphin crying
Oceans dying
In the circus of life's cycles
-Greatest show on earth, the simple complex awe of it all.

Genius of a pheasant feather, bringing us to pleasant weather, Ingress, egress evermore from time's first dawn.
