

CALL TO THE MIGHTY

6-8-14
(#61)

- 1. You know who you are you've sensed it in your soul
you were called for this moment, to this scene.
Called from afar
to play a part in creation's goal
even not quite knowing what your part might mean.

REFRAIN:* A call to the mighty !
Awaken ! Rise to the call !
To defend unto the end, to give your all.

- 2. Oblivious to your part but 'neath the shadows of your heart
a hidden prompting that now and then was stirred.
From time to time it woke you with a purpose not yet spoke to
in a promise you could feel, but never heard.
- 3. Sacred duty beckons now rise up, take your position
in the march of destiny that calls for some.
Hear the clarion call
to leave behind your sum, your all,
in your soul, you know it now, your time has come.
- 4. Others won't understand they don't hear the call you hear
— the way it's always been for those who live in fear.
But since you were a lad awakened to the gifts you had
you knew there was a reason you were put here.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

- 5. Now the time has come not for all, but some,
to fulfill a greater will, and vital need.
Civilization cries,
almost in death throes it vies
for the called to defend her with all God speed.
