

CAN'T CHANGE WHAT OCCURRED

11-26-93
(#18)

HIT SONG

1. Life, the greatest mystery of all the ages.
A living book of deeds where we, ourselves,
are the pages . . .
Men pretend things didn't happen,
think that they got clean away, think they've sown seeds of
"no reaping and no pay !"
But —

REFRAIN: No matter what you've heard reality will never flaw *
none escape Yahweh's perfect justice in life's law.
And you can't change what occurred,
can't rearrange what you did, what you saw,
you can't escape the perfect justice in His law !

2. Every day we start a new life on a clean slate.
Whatever you don't do or do is something new, you create.
And you wish some parts were different but time can't go back or wait —
what you did with life, once done,
it's then too late !
For —

[REPEAT REFRAIN]
[INSTRUMENTAL]

3. So many times you wish you'd stopped and hesitated.
After rash and clashing consequences
never anticipated.
And you turn around one day, too late to rearrange a tragic fate
but you can't change what's done, once done, it's too late !
And —

[REPEAT REFRAIN]

(Continued)

CAN'T CHANGE WHAT OCCURRED
(Continued)

(11-26-93)
(#18)

4. Maybe what is done is done and what is happening won't last.
But every breath of history that comes will still contain its past.
Yes, there is a perfect law laid down and one day you'll meet its effect whether earned by deeds you've done or by neglect !

[REPEAT REFRAIN TO FADEOUT]

[END]

Written: October 13 to November 26, 1993
Revised: March 3, 2014 [H, C, P, M, G]

* Alternate lines 2, 3, & 4 of refrain:
"Reality can never flaw
none escape Yahweh's WORD of truth sown in His Law."