

DAYS OF TERROR

8-11-13

1. Days of terror, days of trauma
they surround us;
as this age marches
to a violent stand.
Dazed and doped-up people still don't know they found us -- they astound us
that their heads' still in the sand.

BRIDGE: What will it take for this people to awaken?

In their arrogance they're truly God-forsaken...
Days of terror, days of trauma
coming fast and hard.
They don't know it, but it's in their own back yard.

2. Days of terror, days of trauma
seeking evil just to top it;
egos gone insane
have usurped every helm.
For the first time in the history of man
no one can stop it;
throughout the whole earth (now)
it rules in every realm.

[REPEAT BRIDGE]

3. Days of terror, days of trauma usury-spawned and usury-bought;
days of militant madmen -- every politician.
Like savage instinct-animals whose twisted minds have never thought, but to spread their dread
as their life and soul ambition.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

4. Days of terror, days of trauma
ever-growing.
It's the new normalcy
of our age.
Crazed with error
like a cancer never slowing;
it will draw the curtain closed on history's stage.

[REPEAT BRIDGE, AND TAG]

[3 TIMES, ITS LAST 2 LINES]
