

DAYS OF THUNDER

11-1-15
(#78)

1. Capsized in an ocean storm
no thought of keeping safe or warm,
just another day's activities at sea.
Glory and wonder, days of thunder,
ban the plan, it's been torn asunder,
just another day in the life of men's duty.

2. Days of thunder, days of glory,
men of courage living out their story
of heroism, but a daily part of their life.
Tough enough, the life that's chosen them
sacrifices not heard of by other men
intense, immense, accepted struggles of strife.

BRIDGE: Days of hardness, days of toughness
generation-to-generation of men.
Ways of honor, of duty and family,
will we ever see such men again ?

[INSTRUMENTAL]

3. Days of thunder, years of hardship
greatness forged in their bones, drip-by-drip droplets of each hour turned to centuries.
Lifetimes of men rough and bold
young toughs fill the gap of men growing old never knowing a life of refined comfort and ease.

4. Men who risk their lives for their kinsmen,
men who fight, bleed and die for their women,
not one deems it more than what they owe.
Honor unto death through the days of thunder,
living by the ways and the codes they're under,
their shield of integrity borne wherever they go.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[END]

Written: November 1, 2015 [M, G]