

FOR THE ROCK OF SALVATION
(ENDURE, ENDURE, ENDURE)

1. When the loads of life, those goads of strife, ongoing like the whipping winds in fierce oceans 'a blowing.
When the life of Jōb seems easy next to -- what yours has become,
fix your anchor on the Rock, our only Sal-va-a-tion.
2. When the times that try men's souls bind and surround you;
even crushing as the rushing traumas hound you.
One more lash and it will crash -all- down around you--
Reach for the Rock, He's taken stock, and found you.

REFRAIN

He's the anchor, He's the Rock, the only shelter in the storm.
If He's called on you to suffer much beyond the norm...
Endure, just endure, and know he's watching you for sure.
If that's ALL you can do, do that much for Him.

3. When your world that seemed so solid quakes and shatters.
When all's destroyed and lost, that really matters.
When the cuts' so deep you're but a heap of tatters--
Then hold to the Rock that binds what hardship scatters.

[REPEAT REFRAIN]

4. When there's nothing left, all hope is gone, you've reached the end.
When you feel there's nothing left that even He could mend.
When it's too late to be cured by healing even He could send-- That's why you were called, to learn to depend-- on the Rock of Salvation.
