

HEART-TO-HEART

4-15-14
(#35)

1. Are you worn, weak and weary? *
No, my son, I'm just feeling as deep as I can. †
Do you cry because you are not very manly? *
No, I weep, my son, because I am a man. †

2. Why is the sky so vast, and blue? |
Why do the clouds weep down rain? \
Tell me the answers like you always do / *
I just love the way you lovingly explain. |

* = Lines sung by boy (son)
† = Lines sung by man (father)

3. I don't have all the answers, my son. |
But I think I can tell you the most important one: \
Make sure that love comes first in everything / †
— You'll be amazed at the treasures life will bring. |

[INSTRUMENTAL SHORT TURNAROUND]

4. Why pluck the treasure from the seconds of each day? \
Why not hold and measure moments as they pass away? / *
Oh, let go of all but love, whatever may occur \
As moments pass, things are no longer what they were. / †

[TURNAROUND AND PAUSE]

5. How long will we be father and son? *
Till time runs out of days, until "how" runs out of ways. †
Will I have the treasure of you until time stands still? *
If you hold on to only love, you will. †
