

I WILL IF YOU WILL

9-9-16
(#66)

1. May I bring honor and praise to you,
not theory, not talk, but in the things that I do.
Teach me your plan for me that I may grow,
grant me your wisdom over what I think I know.
Bend your offender to total surrender,
when you wish me to come
where you wish me to go —
Let it be so; your will be done, though.

HOOK/

REFRAIN: I will if you will . . . suffer.
I will if you will . . . go where you call.
I will if you will . . . help the needy.
I will if you will . . . feed the poor.
I will if you will . . . sacrifice my life.
I will if you will . . . stand up for you.
I will if you will . . . become you in me.

2. What does your glory mean ? Can I trust in what's unseen ?
How will I know which way, to understand what you say ?
Insulate me from the world's temptations,
strengthen my weakness in my supplications.
Bend this offender to total surrender,
where you wish me to come
when you wish me to go —
Let it be so; your will be done, though.

[REPEAT HOOK/REFRAIN]

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[REPEAT LAST FOUR LINES OF VERSE 1]

[REPEAT HOOK/REFRAIN; AND AGAIN, TO FADEOUT]

[END]

Written: September 9, 2016 [R, M, H]