

IF I FALL IN LOVE AGAIN

3-11-15 (2)
(#15)

- 1. If I fall in love at the drop of a dime at least I know it won't be different this time.
It's just chemistry that's displaced my good sense
I know from a thousand past, soft lessons of experience
— so many broken hearts, and one-time lost innocence.
- 2. But I'll still fall in love at the drop of a dime knowing but a fool would think it's the last time.
And I'll still entertain that it will be forever while my brain says it's insane — and not so clever — proclaim-ing the same-thing , "Never, Never, Never, Never !" — (again)

[INSTRUMENTAL]

- 3. I'll fall in love again at the drop of a dime —
I know, because it happens to me, every time.
No matter how profoundly I insist it was the last,
when it comes to love, the die, it seems, is hopelessly cast
— I can't help myself, ever-repeating the past.

BRIDGE: If I fall, if I fall, if I fall, if I fall
Don't catch me — that's where I get caught and lose it all.
Let me fall, let me fall, let me fall, let me fall but don't let me fall in love again.

- 4. If I fall in love again at the drop of a dime would you stay with me and not flee this time ?
Or if I'm the first to take flight, would you say that it was you, too, who really wanted it that way ?
— *or would your charms woo me to forever stay ?
