

JUST LIKE THAT !

5-14-16
(#48)

1. We had made love, and we gave love,
we received more than our share.
We had fought it, then we sought it,
we then bought it fair and square.
Yes, we did it, though we hid it;
to have thought it — we wouldn't dare !
Then we sat like a Cheshire cat —
just like that !

2. We demanded how we planned it,
though underhanded, as it were.
We were candid as we expanded
and commanded with fervor.
We would fake it and forsake it
till we couldn't take it anymore,
and pass the hat, for tit-for-tat —
just like that !

BRIDGE: But life finally woke us with a wake-up call . . .
a few went straight, most went to hell's gate,
watched some teeter off the wall.
Some gave their all but still would fall;
they just couldn't wait to adulterate their fate
— some just didn't quite have the gall.

3. Now our intents on the heels of penance
are imbued with true benevolence.
No connivers 'mong the survivors,
all polished diamonds of experience.
We've become the refined consequence of a fine example format —
imagine that . . . (just like that !)

[INSTRUMENTAL]

[REPEAT VERSE 1]

TAGS: Like a Mona Lisa smile on a Cheshire cat, dressed in the vest of the best aristocrat,
feelin' kinda purry in that furry coat and hat . . .
Yea ! Just like that ! Just like that !

[END]

Written: May 14, 2016 [G, N]