

[Did I reach inside the heart of my beloved,
to extract this one? --Well, how did I do, Suzy?]

1. Can we conquer the world
as long as we're together?
Can we overcome all adversity?
I can't predict everything
no, no more than the weather;
what the future will bring, we'll have to wait and see.
But I know I want to try it,
I'll place my bet and buy it
--Whatever life will be Just me... & Free.

2. Can we conquer the world?
The two of us together.
Two as one, with our little family.
Can we move impossible mountains
as if light as a feather;
I don't know, but I'll take the plunge -- unreservedly.
Yes, my heart is set to try it,
I'll wager ALL to buy it
--A new life, we'll be
Just me... & Free.

3. And if we conquer the world,
One day looking back together
let's credit our Creator for His mercy.
Or if we didn't conquer all yet had each other -- through the storms and weather what greater dream or treasure could there be?
Because we had the guts to try it and wager all to buy it
We won -- life's highest glory:
me & free.

[END, at least for now]

--Written from Suzy's heart to her Free man, though caught and penned by him, for her...
