

NOW ! FOR ! THEN !

5-25-14 (2)
(#54)

1. Now ! For ! Then !
If only we could do it over
get a second try again
and see now what would happen then !
Aye, Now ! For ! Then !
Say, can we roll the dice, or did we already and shame ! The game came out the same !

2. What did we gain ?
By all the history traveled ?
By all the mystery unraveled ?
By all the blistery words we babbled ?
Win, lose or draw,
can't change a thing in what we did or saw
by wishing we could do it again,
now for then.

[REPEAT VERSE ONE]

3. Time in a bottle,
our will as the throttle;
Could we go back and model
only fond things we coddle ?
Footprints in the sand
unraveling dear time's every strand
and traveling never once again,
that "now for then."

[REPEAT VERSE ONE]

[INSTRUMENTAL]

4. Great balls of fire !
Just made it this time under the wire
how close we all came to expire
before the day would retire !
The button's almost pressed in nuclear madness — not a test
could we re-start at Eden,
now-for-then ?

[REPEAT VERSE ONE]

TAGS: . . . Could we re-start at Eden
now for then ?
[OVERLAP / INTERSPERSE WITH]:
. . . Or did we already, and shame !
The game came out the same !
