

1. Praise you, Yahshua, your presence is here.
Thank you for conquering hatred and fear.
You chase away evil, by shining your light;
forever cast Satan out, into hell's night.
2. Praise you, my Father, your Spirit is near.
Reflect your assurance, in life's tainted mirror.
My heart is the target of the wicked and fierce.
But your light's a shield, Satan's darkness can't pierce.
3. Praise you dear Yahweh, your hope fills my soul;
to stand me against the adversary's toll;
who's taken the world by deception and lure.
But you're my salvation, by you I endure.

4. Praise you Yahshua, your purity saves.
And raises its vessels from permanent graves.
Your blood cleanses over our debt, surely due.
I reach out and hug this gift given by you.
5. Praise you my Savior; that haunting hurt comes.
I taste how it crushes and captures and numbs.
But I have your armor, your promise and sword,
to overcome Satan by the power of your WORD.

6. Praise you, Yahshua; I'm driven to you.
By suffering and damage the evil ones do.
I praise you in sorrow, in loss and in pain.
For all worldly loss is all heavenly gain.
