

SHADES OF REMEMBRANCE

11-9-14

(#87)

1. Shades of remembrance . . . Em-C of mornings wrapped in your embrace D-D Pinnacle of elegance Em-C your incomparable taste. D-D Ravaged in the net of passion, Em-C love and lust and need all clashin' D-D
— Careful not to lose love in our haste; Am-C-E
— Be careful not to fuse it into waste. Dm-E-Am

2. Shades of remembrance . . .
of whispering fire-red sunsets Vibrating tones of eloquence eternal awe each scene begets.
Their songs sung without a word
but we, with hearts to hear, we heard
To relive again with no love-debts;
Reliving them again now with no regrets.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

3. Shades of remembrance . . .
of love too wonderful to name;
Still bearing that resemblance
in what our dreams became.
Fast lovers left back in the dust
for high stakes playing "all or bust!"
— And love, once emberish sparks tangled with shame
— Young spark of love that burst into a flame.

BRIDGE: Shades, shades of remembrance they taunt us; G-D-C-C shadows from the days of youth entice and seek to haunt us. G-D-C-C
But we have this love legacy
we wondered if we'd ever see G-D-C-C
that's turned out better than the one we sought, though sometimes spurned, it was both earned and bought.* Em-C-D-D

[SHORT INSTRUMENTAL TURNAROUND]

4. Shades of remembrance . . .
of love never gone astray
Not sweetened by coincidence,
not faded by time's decay.
Love wrested from the tests of time
invested, mine-in-yours-in-mine in shades of remembrance
that will never fade away . . .

TAG: In shades of remembrance
that will never fade away . . .

[REPEAT TAG TO FADEOUT]

[END]

Lyrics written: September 27 to November 9, 2014 by Lazor; Music to bridge, by Lazor.
Music to verses, by "Spy" (Louie Hubilister).

* Here: whisper, "We made it, darling!"