

SHE'S THE SONG IN MY HEART

1992 #26

* 1 -We met in the fall
when the leaves danced in their glory
I was caged behind the wall
she lived two or three states from me.

2 As the songbirds fled the cold
writing lovesongs in their flight
No, I'd not yet grown too old she said "come to me in the night."

Bridge: She's my dream, my highest mark
She's my sunlight in the dark
When they've trashed life's harmonies and torn the world apart...
+ She's the song-
She's the song-
She's the song in my heart.

3 She said she loved me all this time
What took me so long to awaken
I thought to have her was a crime
Such love must already be taken.

4 Then quicker than a lightning bolt like spontaneous realization
I knew beside the frightening jolt
God made her for me at creation.

[REPEAT BRIDGE]
[INSTRUMENTAL]

5 Then she gave herself to me
behind the wall, inside the cage
She came to set her songbird free as we let our love engage.

6 It's cost too much to ever measure
what she gave away for me;
But she swears it's worth the treasure for her heartsong's liberty.

[REPEAT BRIDGE]

[Epilog verse]:

7 As the seasons turn to years
and rush by like a waterfall
Mixed with rainbows from some tears
Still she loves me above all...
...and he lives his whole life for her summer, winter, spring & fall
...Can you hear the songbirds call?
...Wings of love never stall
++...They have broken down the wall.

[OPTIONAL INSTRUMENTAL FADE]

* Intro: First syllable is a gest of laughter after vague social/nature mixed sounds.

 Alternate: Singular "harmony".

+ A cappella hushed lyrics with no instruments; only back bird sounds and one violin bow draw.

++ Ritard this line part way through to end. And fade out instruments except violins & bird chirps, as it fades.
