

1. Sunset beautiful, rakes the sky.
Sunset oracle, makes me cry.
Lone bird with no care flies on by;
Paint brush wisps the air, dries my eye.
2. Sunset memories, reds on blue.
Spun behind the trees, every hue.
Awe-inspiring scene, much like you.
Once I shared that dream; you did too.

INSTRUMENTAL

3. Sunset far away, through the haze.
Sunset doesn't stay, march on days.
Freeze-frame in my mind, soul's ablaze;
What'd we leave behind, through life's maze?
4. Sunset wonderful, what's life about?
Regrets thunderful, spells of doubt.
Fades to another year, different route.
Eyes O.K.'d a tear, it'll work out...

BRIDGE

Whenever you see the sunset, will you then think about me?
Was it all for nothing that He gave us this love?
Will you think about our love that was to be?
What purpose is there for this beauty?
Remember, how we grew together,
and remember how we grew apart.
The mysteries of this life we weren't made to understand—
The Creator's wonderous hand upon our heart.

5. Sunset beautiful, grips my heart.
Sunset bountiful, sweet, still, tart.
Soul shot through with her distrust's dart.
Fear roared from a purr, pulls us apart.
6. Sunset stops the world, here and now.
Sun outdone, unfurled, take a bow.
Yah's creation — no equal on Earth;
but His sequel to our rebirth!
