

TO WAKE WITH YOU EACH MORNING

12-22-92

1. Why was I created
with a heart for loving you?
While men who reign who've gone insane
aim to tear our love in two.
It's written in our destiny
to be joined at the heart
despite a raging world gone mad
to tear our love apart.

*CHORUS/

REFRAIN: But to wake with you each morning
snuggled in your arms.
I could struggle through
the days nightmares, its hardships and angers.
If I could just be-holding you
as I wake up every morn
in dreams I'd wake in heaven**
come true, in you — reborn.

2. I don't know all the answers
but this much I know for sure,
as long as earth and heaven last
love's power will endure.
Unlike the world's commitments,
I will take mine to the grave,
together keeping this until
there's nothing else to save.
3. Thank ~~YHWH~~ for the riches
of his first and best heirloom.
Thank He who gave the soil and sun
of love where we could bloom.
A flower in creation's field
basked on the mountain's crest —
I think He lets our petals fall
to put love to the test.
4. We know eventually that love
will conquer fear and pain.
We know the law of life's design
brings rainbows from the rain.
We know a greater will than ours
designed our destiny
to be together, once again
to share eternity.

* Repeat refrain between each verse as desired.

** Alternate: "in heaven" & "in paradise"

† Repeat TAG twice; fade in instrumental on second TAG, then fade out.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

† TAG: ...one flower in creation's field
basked on the mountain's crest,
I think He lets our petals fall
to put love to the test...
