

"TOO TRUE TO BE GOOD"

9-10-15
(#68)

1. You crashed my car, metaphorically speaking,
just so you could offer me a ride.
Your hot-blooded urgency was horribly peaking
— a fact that you didn't even try to hide.
2. I left the scene as the light turned green,
but all you could see was red.
A superficial sexy look was all it took,
you said you couldn't get me out of your head.

REFRAIN: In a world of lies piled to the skies where nothing applies as it should.
"Too good to be true" may be tellin' on you,
you never thought it would, I never thought it could.
Are you really for real or will time reveal that I just misunderstood ?

HOOK: You just sound toooo true to be good.
You just sound toooo true to be good.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

3. But I fell for you in spite of me and all my lessons of the past.
I never said it was true and neither did you — neither one of us expected it would last.
You sounded toooo true to be good.

[REPEAT REFRAIN AND HOOK]

4. Well, pardon me, but I'm not for free, it takes a little more investment than that.
Are you just another reality refugee,
or is your "true" good wherever you're at ?
You just sound toooo true to be good.
You just sound toooo true to be good !
5. I'm still lookin' for some fun, pretty much like everyone,
but I've gotta have some heart in it too.
You sounded too ideal to escape my appeal
but is your "real" real enough in the real heart of you ?
You just sound toooo true to be good !
You just sound toooo true to be good !

[REPEAT HOOK INTO FADEOUT]

[END]
