

UNTIL I SAW YOU STANDING THERE

4-23-14
(#38)

1. All around me, every reminder of how I tried but, couldn't find her.
The endeavor, seemed forever
until I saw you standing there.
2. A familiar sound, made me turn around,
pretty women, each, in an evening gown;
Their attraction, was mere distraction
from the moment I saw you standing there.

[TURNAROUND]

3. Dazzling ambience of the ballroom focused on the new wife and bridegroom
just intensified passions deep inside —
my racing heart, as I saw you standing there.
4. She lit a fire inside, where a flame had died couldn't let her get away — but didn't know what to say.
If I let her go, I would never know
her thoughts toward me, as she saw me standing there.

[INSTRUMENTAL]

5. We began by easy dancing
we would end by coy romancing.
Before night's end, two hearts would blend
as we gazed at each other standing there.

BRIDGE: What is this chemistry that draws us
like the tides to the moon ?
Filled with such urgency
that it can't be fulfilled too soon.
Running through the gates of destiny into her arms as we were always meant to be from the start, we know this part, by heart —
chiseled in a mountain made of diamond
eons before I saw her standing there.

6. We're now married with many offspring,
second generation wild weeds growing;
More that ever she's amazing
and as beautiful as when I saw her standing there.

[END]

Written: April 24, 2014